River of Grass Weekly Update – April 25, 2024

It Would Be Enough: A Passover Telling

Let's bring Dayenu into the present.

We are grateful, and yet what miracles and accomplishments would be sufficient (Dayenu) in today's world for us to be truly satisfied?

- From Rabbi Debbie Reichmann's Supplemental Haggadah 2024

In this season of liberation and renewal, we come into our Telling of the Passover wisdom as a story of hope that calls us to face down the bonds that enslave us in body and spirit – around us and within us – as we contemplate what would be “enough” in our own time.

Come as you are at 10:30 this Sunday morning – either in person at our new location in Davie (info below) or virtually on Zoom and Facebook Live. Come a bit before and we can chat prior to the service. We'll be watching for you!

In person at:

- 11850 W State Road 84, Suite A9, Davie, FL 33325 (Click for Directions)
- Service will begin at 10:30 AM
- Childcare will be provided.

Use the Zoom link below to gather with us virtually in Zoom. Catch us on Facebook live on our Facebook page.

Lesbian Visibility Day is April 26:

Recognized since 2008 as a way of acknowledging the perceived erasure of lesbian spaces and the need to preserve and celebrate lesbian culture, distinct as it is from other gay, bi, trans, and queer experiences.

This day celebrates lesbians and shows solidarity with all LGBTQI women and non-binary people in our community. We believe in unity and lifting those who are most marginalized. It is essential that Lesbian Visibility Day is a voice for unity and lifts up ALL women, especially those who come from marginalized communities," the site continues. "Recent research (Pride Matters survey, conducted by Pride In London 2018) has shown that gay women are almost twice as unlikely to be out in the workplace as gay male colleagues."

It is meant as a time for lesbians to be seen, heard, and celebrated. Just like any other week to commemorate different groups in the LGBTQ+ community, Lesbian Visibility Week is a great time to reflect on how lesbians are treated within the LGBTQ+ community and in everyday life.

"Rustin" is about Bayard Rustin, an advisor to Martin Luther King Jr., who dedicated his life to the quest for racial equality, human rights, and worldwide democracy. However, as an openly gay Black man, he is all but erased from the civil rights movement he helped build. Rustin organized the 1963 March on Washington where the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. gave his famous speech "I Have a Dream."

BUUKies May Read – "Stay Cool; Why dark comedy matters in the fight against Climate Change" by Aaron Sachs. We will meet on Wednesday, May 15th at 7:00 pm to discuss this bUUK. River BUUKies Zoom Link

This short book shows how gallows humor can bolster us to confront global warming. We've all seen the headlines: oceans rising, historic heat waves, mass extinctions, climate refugees. It feels overwhelming. Stay Cool tells us to laugh our way forward. Human beings have used comedy to cope with difficult realities since the beginning of recorded time—the more dismal the news, the darker the humor. Using this rich tradition of dark comedy to investigate climate change, Aaron Sachs makes the case that gallows humor can cultivate endurance, persistence, and solidarity in the face of calamity.

SSJGT, Service and Social Justice Green Team, Green Tip of the Week: Bring your reusable bags to the grocery store. Avoid the disposable plastic bags offered at checkout, as over 5 Billion of them are used each year, often ending up in landfills and waterways...as they are not biodegradable. Be green! :)
