On Finding the New... Again

Sunday we will hear the last in the Summer Classics Series called “On Finding The New... Again.” Renewal is a tricky word. It has two parts: “new,” of course, but also the prefix “re”, which suggests repetition. That’s kind of a paradox, right? How can something be new... again? Come join us on Sunday morning to hear Amy Horton-Tavera tell us about her journey to becoming new again. Don’t forget to be at the service at 10:30 to also hear how and when we will possibly regather during this next church year.

Come as you are to gather with us for this Sunday’s love-streamed service, remembering only the medium is virtual; the connections, the love, the spirit are real. Following the service, we will share virtual Hospitality time with a live chat and small groups where we can relish each other’s beautiful faces and voices together once again.

Introduction to Summer Series

Oh, Let Us Gather

Opening Words

Welcome

Song – “For All That Is Our Life” Words: Bruce Findlow; Music: Patrick L. Rickey

Chalice Lighting

*Recognizing the beauty around us and within us,
in voice and spirit, we gather to light our chalice.*

*May we savor the beauty of our abundance and diversity,
always cherishing one another and our earth.*

*May we remember to inhale the lushness in life
knowing that we are a people of beauty. (Kimberlee Anne Tomczak Carlson)*

Covenant

Love is the spirit of this congregation and service is its law.

This is our great covenant:

to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

El Amor es el espíritu de esta congregación, y el servicio su ley principal.

Esta es nuestra gran promesa:

vivir juntos en paz, buscar la verdad a través del amor, y ayudarnos mutuamente.
