River of Grass Weekly Update – July 25, 2024

In The Garden With Beatrix

Beatrix Potter was born in London on 28 July 1866 and was raised as a Unitarian Universalist. She lived with her mother Helen, her father Rupert, and her younger brother Bertram. Even though she had no friends to play with, she had lots to indulge her interest in nature spending hours exploring and sketching the wildlife in her backyard. It was there that she met Peter Rabbit, Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail, Peter's sisters. Of course, the characters are endless. Come back to your childhood with Beatrix in her garden...

Faith Development for Kids and Youth:

River of Grass kids have fun all summer long! During our Summer Fun Faith Development program, we are offering fun activities and a children's fellowship every Sunday during worship through Aug. 25. These sessions take the place of regular Sunday school, which will return in September. For more information, contact the Summer Fun coordinator Diane Lade at 954-673-3465 or dlade@bellsouth.net.

Coming up this Summer Fun Sunday: Did you know that making a lovely picture can help you feel calmer as well as being fun? Miss Dora, a professional textile designer, will show us how to create Neurogenic Art through a simple and relaxing form of drawing. Join us! You'll have a special piece of art made by YOU to take home. (Miss Dora plans to bring Sharpies for the project – which are not washable. Kids might want to dress or bring in a shirt that can get stained.)

SSJGT, Service and Social Justice Green Team, Green Tip of the Week: Use efficient lighting. Resist temptations to buy “old fashion” light bulbs, and instead replace bulbs with compact fluorescent or LED. It may cost more upfront, but they use less electricity, produce less heat, reduce your electric bill, and often last year’s longer.
